

Summer Strength & Agility

Details:

Instead of offering a sport specific camp, our goal is to get a variety of different athletes to push each other. Each class will be structured a little different, but they will also be designed to increase speed, agility, acceleration, power, and conditioning. We will utilize things like sleds, ladders, cones, sprints, stairs, battle ropes, dumbbells, and more. This camp is also great for kids who aren't playing sports, but want to exercise! Not everyone likes be tackled and we understand that. No matter what activity you enjoy participating in, we'll make sure that you're better at it!
